

Sequoia™ III Table Leg and Base Improvements

Improved taper fit on the leg cap provides a rigid and secure fit between the table top and leg

Improvements result in over a 40% reduction in movement of the table

Ergonomically designed right hand twist-lock collar reduces the chances of cross threading and provides a more intuitive design for end users

Additional inner structural element transfers load from the leg to the floor base, increasing the stability of the table

